GrammarError.com

Basics. Modal verbs for expressing preferences, requests, and imperatives in speech.

Easy | A1 | Elementary | Beginners | A2 | Elementary | Pre-intermediate | Verb | Modal verb | Auxiliary verb | Imperative mood | English Grammar Basics

1. Select the sentence that uses "Don't" for emphasis.

Answers:

Select one.

- A) Come in time. Don't be late!
- B) Don't touch the hot stove.
- C) Don't forget your umbrella.
- D) Don't worry about me.

2. Choose sentences that are polite requests for someone to help you.

Answers:

Select all that apply.

- A) Please helping me.
- B) Please help me.
- C) Help me, please.
- D) You help me.

3. Choose the correct sentences to suggest going to the park.

Answers:

Select all that apply.

- A) Let's to go park!
- B) Let's go park!
- C) Let us go to the park!
- D) Let's go to the park!

4. Choose the sentence that correctly uses "I'd rather ..." to express preference.

Answers:

Select one.

- A) I'd rather you go home now.
- B) I'd rather go home now.
- C) I'd rather going home now.
- D) I'd rather if you went home now.

5. Which sentence suggests not eating junk food?

Answers:

Select one.

- A) Let's eat junk food!
- B) Let's not eat junk food!
- C) Let's not eating junk food!
- D) Let's no eat junk food!

6. Choose the sentence that uses "I'd like" to say "I want" in a polite way.

Answers:

Select one.

- A) I'd like if you give me a cup of coffee.
- B) I'd like giving you a cup of coffee.
- C) I'd like a cup of coffee, please.
- D) I'd like to a cup of coffee if you can.

7. Choose the sentence that uses "Don't" as an alert.

Answers:

Select one.

- A) Don't worry about me.
- B) Don't be late for class.
- C) Don't touch the stove; it's hot!
- D) Don't do it again.

8. Choose the sentence that correctly uses "Would you like" in the same sense as "Do you want to play football?"

Answers:

Select one.

- A) Would you like me to play football?
- B) Would you like to play football?
- C) Would you like playing football?
- D) Would you like if I played football?

9. Which sentence correctly uses "I would rather ..." to express preference?

Answers:

Select one.

- A) I would rather you eat pizza than pasta.
- B) I would rather eating pizza than pasta.
- C) I would rather if you ate pizza than pasta.
- D) I would rather eat pizza than pasta.

10. Which sentences are common ways to wish someone a good day?

Answers:

Select all that apply.

- A) Have a good day!
- B) Have a great day!
- C) Have a nice day!

11. Which sentence is a correct invitation using "Would you like ... ?"

Answers:

Select one.

- A) Would you like go to the party?
- B) Would you like to go to the party with me?
- C) Would you like if I go to the party?
- D) Will you go to the party?