GrammarError.com

Money, Errands & Everyday Services

Medium | A2 | Elementary | Pre-intermediate | Future tense | Infinitive | Noun | Phrasal verb | Phrase | Preposition | Present tense | Verb | Simple tense | Collocations

1. Complete what the generous friend says at the end of the meal.

Put your wallet away! It's your birthday, so I am going to _____ the bill today.

Select one.

A) pay for
B) pay
C) buy
D) spend

2. Complete the busy roommate's sticky note about today's chores. Drag the correct words into the blanks.

"I have to _____ a few errands this afternoon. Could you please pick _____ my jacket from the dry cleaners while I go to the bank?"

Choose the correct option for each gap.

Blank 1

A) run
B) make
C) take

Blank 2

A) up
B) out
C) off

3. Complete the busy roommate's text message.

I can't meet you for coffee this morning. I have to _____ a few errands downtown, like picking up my dry cleaning and buying stamps.

Select one.

A) run
B) make
C) go
D) take

4. Read Sarah's text message to her friend about her busy Saturday. She has a lot of chores to finish before they can meet up for lunch!

Select ALL the sentences that use natural English collocations for chores and errands.

Select all that apply.

A) I have to run some errands this morning.
B) I need to do the shopping before noon.
C) I have to make the grocery shopping.
D) I need to make some errands today.

5. Help the shopper complete their thought before heading out.

I need to buy some fresh vegetables at the farmer's market, so I'm going to get some cash _____ the ATM first.

Select one.

- A) from
- B) out
- C) off
- D) to

6. Your coworker is leaving the office early to take care of a few personal things around town.

Select ALL the sentences that sound grammatically correct and natural for a native speaker.

Select all that apply.

- A) I'm going to get a haircut.
- B) I need to pick up my clothes from the dry cleaner.
- C) I'm going to cut my hair at the salon.
- D) I need to take up my clothes from the dry cleaner.

7. Help the panicked customer finish his text message to a friend by dragging the correct words into the blanks.

"Oh no, I forgot my wallet! I can't pay _____ credit card today. Is there an ATM nearby? I need to take _____ some cash before I can buy this coffee."

Choose the correct option for each gap.

Blank 1

- A) by
- B) on
- C) from

Blank 2

- A) out
- B) off
- C) up